In re the Application of

Masaharu KAWAKUBO et al.

NOTIFICATION OF CORRECTION OF TRANSLATION ERROR

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

The present application was filed as a PCT-U.S. National Stage Application on May 30, 2006.

In some of the papers related to the parent PCT Application, the fifth inventor's name was translated from Japanese into English as "Masahiko Akiduki." See, for example, the translated PCT Request. However, the translation of the inventor's last name as "Akiduki" was an error, and the more accurate translation of the name is "Akizuki." Accordingly, in the Application Data Sheet, executed Declaration and other documents filed with the PCT-U.S. National Stage Application the fifth inventor was properly translated and identified as "Masahiko Akizuki."

Because the name of the fifth inventor indicated in the application filing papers is merely a corrected translation of the name as it appears in the original application, no further correction of the inventor's name is required in this application.

Should there be any questions regarding this communication, the Patent Office is requested to telephone applicants undersigned attorney at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,

Mario A. Costantino
